Bridal make-up that's good for you

Make-up that is made from minerals, is vegan and with make-up artists available for your big day? Look no further.

Looking fabulous on your wedding day without sacrificing the health of your skin is a hard hurdle to overcome. Long hours in thick make-up on the biggest day of your life is not something your skin will thank you for. The benefits of mineral make-up is becoming more popular in the beauty industry, and we're a huge fan at CW headquarters.

For a flawless look all day long without looking like your make-up is layered on thick, opt for a mineral base make-up that won't clog your skin. We vote La Glam Minerals as one of the best on the market, and what's more is they have a team of make-up artists available for bridal make-up and they use their fabulous range of mineral and vegan make-up.

La Glam Minerals, founded by make-up artist Amanda La Monica, swears its wonder mineral makeup controls excess oil and shine and it is water resistant so your makeup doesn't slide off your face in the heat of the day (or from dancing too much!). The texture is made for sheer coverage which can be built upon to your desired coverage. Creator Amanda was also voted No1 Makeup Artist in NSW by the Australian Bridal Industry Academy.

For DIY make-up at home, La Glam has a great range of
